The financial assistance or subsidy provided to the registered meat exporters are not maintained state-wise. The transport assistance component for export of meat products has been discontinued since 01.01.2014

- (d) In addition to the above, the Government has taken following steps to promote the export of scheduled products including meat and meat products:-

- (i) APEDA acts as facilitating body for helping exporters to overcome various trade related issues, particularly exports.
- (ii) APEDA regularly disseminates information of various trade related aspects to the exporters.
- (iii) Participation in international trade fairs to promote Indian meat products.

(e) & (f): No, Madam. There has been no demand from any State to impose ban /restrictions on export of meat and meat products in the recent past. However, representations are being received from time to time from some religious/social organisations demanding ban on export of meat and its products. The existing export policy is in the interest of the farmers, livestock producers, meat consumers, traders, stake holders and stake holders of other sectors such as dairy, leather, animal feed etc.
